

(Right) The pièce de résistance was the three-tiered cake from Ashley Bakery, piped with incredibly convincing “woven sweet-grass” icing and topped with a romantic rose.

(Opposite) Event planner Melissa Barton designed a guest book and favor station where guests could glimpse family photos from the 1920s through the '50s and write their well-wishes for the future of the happy couple.

